Subject: DVD order ZS8457201

Dear Sir or Madam: 6 August 2011

I am writing to inform you that I am dissatisfied with the service I received on my July DVD order (#ZS8457201).

I ordered three DVDs, including the recommended DVD for March. I did not want the recommended DVD but I had to order it because of the membership conditions. After I received the DVDs, I followed the membership conditions and waited three months to pay. Then I received a bill for an additional 10 percent of the price listed on your website. I also did not like two of the DVDs and think you should only sell DVDs that most people like. I have watched all the DVDs and asked to return them, but the woman on the phone said that would not be possible. I did not know this.

I would still like to return the DVDs and I do not want to pay the extra 10 percent.

Please reply to me as soon as possible.

Yours faithfully,
Helen Brown

Subject... Sofa order #TR960352

15 August 2011

Dear Sir or Madam,

I am writing to inform you that I am dissatisfied with the sofa I bought from the Furniture Online website.

On 3 August 2011, I bought a sofa (order #TR960352) for OR250. The sofa is (1) old/bad/faulty The problems are:

- one of the arms of the sofa is loose
- nails are sticking out at the side
- one of the cushions is missing

In addition, I haven't received the two-year (2) replacement/guarantee/promise which was included with the price. I complained about this on 4 August 2011 and again on 10 August, I have heard nothing since. I am extremely (3) dissatisfied/sad/happy with the quality of the sofa and the service I have received.

I wish to (4) complain/reject/refund the sofa and (5) claim/complain/repair either a (6) faulty/refund/new or a (7) guarantee/compensation/replacement sofa.

Please reply to my (8) fault/complaint/anger within seven days.

Yours faithfully,
Helen Brown
